

Global research centers

ArcelorMittal operates 11 research sites located in Europe, North America, and South America, employing more than 1,500 researchers. ArcelorMittal invests nearly $300 million each year in R&D activities to keep us at the forefront of innovation.

Location	Centre	Main areas
Maizières-les-Metz, France	Bars & Wires	Process & Product R&D and technical assistance for bars, rods and wires products
	Process	Process R&D and Technical Assistance
	Product	Auto and Packaging Product Development and Technical Assistance
	Shared Services	Process and Product Centers Support
Montataire, France	Auto Application	Automotive applications and Customer support
Asturias, Spain	GRID	Process, Product and Business & Technoeconomics R&D and Technical Assistance
	New Frontier	Technological Megatrends & Sustainable Mining
Basque Country, Spain	Basco	Process & Product R&D and Technical Assistance for CSP production lines.
Hamilton	Hamilton	Process & Product R&D and Technical Assistance
East Chicago	East Chicago	Process & Product R&D and Technical Assistance
Hamilton, East Chicago, Southfield	Auto Product Applications	Automotive applications and Customer support
Tubarao, Brazil	South America	Process & Product R&D and Technical Assistance
Gent, Belgium	OCAS	Non-Auto Flat/Electrical Steels Product Development. Process Technical Assistance
Esch-sur-Alzette, Luxembourg	Esch	Process and Product R&D and technical assistance for construction and structural long steel
Taranto, Italy	Italy	Process Technical Assistance
Le Creusot, France	Le Creusot	Process and Product R&D and technical assistance for specialty plates, stainless and alloys.